Meet your MAHE Stewards

Stewards build our union power by keeping LCC employees informed, united and connected while modeling solidarity and engagement around campus.

BRADLEY HICKS
Social Science, History

CHELSEA HODGMAN
Tutoring

CHRISTOPHER SCHNECK
Social Science, History

ED KABARA
Chemistry

ELIZABETH CLIFFORD
Tutoring

FRAN KREMPASKY
Library

IAN LEIGHTON
English

MARTINE RIFE
English

REBECCA BIEBERLY
Social Science, History

RICK CAPRARIO
Business

TIMOTHY DEINES
English

Scan this QR code for MAHE Steward office hours and contact information.

The role of a MAHE Steward

- They are your go-to people in each department/program/area.
- MAHE Stewards are ready to support, represent and fight alongside you!
- MAHE Stewards help educate members on their rights.
- They bridge the gap between employees and the work of the MAHE Executive Board from a front-line perspective.
- MAHE Stewards will hold office hours once a month as another way to support and meet with staff.
- They strengthen communication across campuses by helping build relationships, foster community, and keeping members informed.
- MAHE Stewards welcome new staff, help them connect with the union, and share information about the benefits of union membership.

Become a MAHE Steward

Be part of the change! We are MAHE!

What to Expect

- Trainings provided on MAHE contract, Weingarten Rights, representational responsibilities, member organizing, gripe vs. grievance, etc.
- Participation in MAHE Union meetings.
- Make announcements at department meetings, as appropriate.
- Create a contact list - idenfity change agents within your department/program/area.
- Provide updates and report changes or celebrations within your department/program/area.
- Time commitment - 2-3 hours a month.

Contact

If you want to learn more about the MAHE Stewards or join our team, email Anne Heutsche - heutsa@star.lcc.edu